Foreword

... The doors through which we pass... the corridors... the minutes of sociabilities before class... the class rooms... youth coming and going... In the years to come, this yearbook will keep alive the memories gathered during the undergraduate days. The future years will bring new faces and changes to the school scene, but there shall be for us this record of the friends we knew, the things we did, and the memories that are still dear to us... Yes, this entrance to our school... our beloved W. H. S. that has seen many come and go, stands solidly as the Seniors of each year pass through all too quickly.

In Memoriam

To the beloved memory of Calvin Martin, who would have graduated with the Class of '57, we, the staff, dedicate this 1957 edition of the Packromak. Although his life was short, Calvin made an indelible mark on the hearts of many. That great enigma, Death, always leaves its scars, but somehow even it cannot mar his beloved memory.

In our humble way, we have tried to tell Calvin that although God has taken him away, he will never be forgotten.

Class Poem

Class of '57

We, the Seniors of Washington High
Though we hate to say goodbye
Graduate, each with a smiling face
And step into the world to take our place.
There is fear in our hearts of growing old
Of having to tell and not be told
Of having to teach as well as learn
As we show for all a loving concern.
We would like at this time to thank each one
Of the faculty for all they have done
For the loving kindness, and patience shown
As they taught us children, and made us grown.
A thanks sincere from every heart
As we say goodbye and have to part.

Senior Class Prophecy

Year of 1970

"Mrs. Williams?"

"Yes?"

"Why, Carole Hodges, what a pleasant surprise! You must be the Mrs. Williams I was told to see about the lab position offered me by Harry Gurganus, your head doctor here at the hospital."

"Kathryn Everette, this IS a surprise. Do have a seat and tell me about yourself. By the way, whom did you marry?"

"Well, I was married about four years after we left dear old W. H. S. My beloved husband is also married - to a football, so the children and I hardly ever see him. They even call him by his football nickname, 'Single-ton' Singleton."

"Cecil is now the assistant manager of the Newport News shipyard. Working with him are a few of our old classmates, Jerry Jackson, Stanley Gurganus, and Durwood Moore."

"Speaking of our old classmates, Ann Peters, who is also a medical technician, let me in on all the latest gossip - uh, news - the other day. She said that Bartow Houston, now owner of five new Houston-Belk Stores, is having a problem with his little wife, the former Carolyn Mixon. It seems she can't get along with some of her pupils at school, especially little Marshall Singleton, Jr. (Betty Lou's and Marshall's, you know). Incidentally, George Kelley is principal of W. H. S. now; and June Wahmann teaches senior English, when she can get there on time!"

"Yes, we had a good many successful people in our class of '57. I hear that Robert Hodges has modernized the works of Einstein, and Dell Swindell is steadily rising in fame as a portrait artist."

"Oh, and Bill McLean has his own hour-long TV show on Sunday nights, coast to coast. Some of his recent guests were Will Jenkins, protege of Burl Ives; Jane Hardison and her magic violin; Tommye Dawson at the piano; and Ben McHorney with his jazz combo, which includes David Whitley and Harold Yert, who is also a minister."

"Loretta Bowen is interested in TV, too. She has taken Ann Sothern's place on 'Private Secretary', Harley Caton has replaced Arthur Godfrey, and Ronald Alligood has become the star of 'Gunsmoke'. Oh, and how about Don Sawyer's taking Elvis' place on his own show? The reason for this, so I read in CONFIDENTIAL magazine, which is now edited by Sally Johnson, is because Elvis decided to settle down with his wife. She is the former Ann Page Rhodes, who started as his secretary."

"Did you know that Kitty Ellington, Annie Laura Hodges, Peggy Hollis, and Nelda Sikes are working for the F. B. I. in Washington, D. C.? Mike Bailey is in Washington, too. He has just opened the most exclusive night club on the East Coast. Pat Cameron, Betty Lou Parrott, Lavonne Hall, Betty Lou Morris, and Lindsay Britt are his cigarette girls. Jack Warren, Carl Jones, Skybo Langley, and Billy Gilgo are 'bouncers' for the club, and I hear that they really are making the most of it. Glenda Gilgo, a former policewoman, is working as a detective for the club."

"Incidentally, Pat Paul was recently selected 'Mother of the Year'. She has six lovely children - all girls! Some of the other mothers who were nominated for that position were Kazia Paszt Apple, Charlotte Nicholson Upton, Carlynn Jarvis Knott, Pat Sears Hodges, Shirley Underwood Alligood, and Lucy Phillips Windley."

"By the way, Kathryn, I attended an anniversary party last week for Bunny and Charlie Manning, and Dorothy and Tillmon Boyd. They were married in a double ceremony ten years ago, and they celebrate together every year. Melba Perry, Bunny's old side-kick, is secretary to Bryan Grimes, one of Washington's finest lawyers."

"You know, many fine businesses have been organized by some of our old classmates. One of them is 'Woolard, Woolard, and Woolard,' an extremely large establishment, where bodies are built for busses, trucks, trailers, etc. The owners are Bing, Leroy, and Bobby Dale Woolard. Another business is Leggett's Supermarket. Paul Leggett owns not one, but ten supermarkets, which are spread throughout North Carolina."

"Isn't it amazing how we all turned out? Others of our girls have become successful businesswomen. Ada Ellen not only enlarged her father's Ford business, but bought out the whole Ford Company and now has a sports car named for her. It's called the 'Ada Eagle.' Georgia Ann Fuller designed the outside, and Nell Credle designed the inside. Nell has always said she wanted to be an interior decorator."

"Speaking of cars, Michael Howerin and Howard Swanner are two of the best mechanics in the country. They've really made a good name for themselves."

"Not to change the subject, but aren't taxes awful these days? Cecil and I had to have THREE accountants to help us this year! They were Durwood Cratch, Bradford Tetterton, and Merrill Wallace. Those boys can really figure tax forms."

"Some others, whom we have in the business fields, are working as bookkeepers and secretaries, such as Joyce Alligood, Bernice Taylor Lucille Whitehurst, Shirley Dixon, Yvonne Mizelle, Julenna Mizelle, and Judy Bridgeman."

"By the way, with the presidential election coming up this year, I'm sure several votes will be cast for Donald Ambrose. Jimmy Hackney and his camera surely have caught Donald in some mighty interesting poses during the campaign."

"Yes, Carole, I'm sure Don would make a fine president. There are several of our classmates serving Uncle Sam. They are Bobby Murdock, J. T. Sheppard, Glenwood Smith, Bunny Cox, and Billy Latham."

"Have you read in the papers about the new 'Flynn and Wynne Men's Shop' on Daniels Street? It's owned and operated by Frank Flynn and Kirby Wynne. The street, as you know, is named for the famous poet, Earl Daniels."

"Edward Mercer is operating 'Brother's Shoe Shop.' Some of his helpers are Richard and Lindy Hodges, Bill Morgan, and Jack Cleve."

"How interesting! Bobby Upton, Milton Hodges, and James Leggett are driving Trailway busses, and Preston Whitford is owner of 'Whitford's Drug Store,' which takes up a whole block in Pinetown. That town has really begun to wake up since Tommy Owens became mayor there."

Oh my! I must hurry! I have an appointment at 'Reta's Beauty Salon,' which, by the way, is owned by Reta Daniels. She has two wonderful girls helping her, Sally Joyce Taylor and Shirley Cowal. They can really do wonders with your hair."

"I'm so sorry you must go. It's really been nice talking over old times with you."

"We may have a chance to talk again soon, if I get the job. 'Bye now."

"Good-bye."

Last Will and Testament

State of North Carolina
County of Beaufort
City of Washington

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty-seven, being of sound body and not too sound mind, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament, rendering void all other wills and documents that may have been made previously.

ARTICLE I. To the Superintendent, Principal and Teachers we leave (at last).

ARTICLE II. To the Junior Class, our rightful heirs, we leave the few following privileges:

1. Reserved room in the cafeteria
2. Coming upstairs before the fourth period bell rings
3. Coming into the building before the bell rings
4. Senior Trip
5. Kid's Day
6. Class Night

ARTICLE III. To the Sophomores we leave the job of selling magazines and preparing the Junior-Senior next year.

ARTICLE IV. To the Freshmen we leave the hope of someday becoming a Senior.

ARTICLE V. Our personal belongings will be distributed to our liking. We bequeath and devise as follows:

1. Betty Lou Alligood and Robert Hodges leave their brains to Bill Dunn and Jean Arthur.
2. Kazia Pastz leaves her job at the "Y" to Florence Ipock and Mattie Bright.
3. Loretta Bowen and Howard Swanner leave their wit to Duffy Toler and Linda Carol Parker.
4. The athletic ability of Earl Daniels, Bartow Houston, and George Kelley is left to Durwood Dixon, Dickie Jones, Jimmy Silverthorne, and Larry Aldridge.
5. Ronald Alligood and Barbara Galloway leave their flirtatious ways to Fred Alligood and Sallie Brinkley.
6. Nell Credle and Don Sawyer leave their good looks to Carol Salle and Ward Marslender.
7. Glenda Stubbs and Will Jenkins leave their talents to Marie Moore and Charlie Mike Smith.
8. Carolyn Mixon and "Fritz" Tanner leave their cuteness to Sandra Harrell and Steve Cochran.
9. Jane Hardison leaves her athletic ability to Leigh Francis and Louise Miller.
10. Georgia Fuller and "Skybo" Langley leave their dancing ability to Ginny Fowle and Jess Harrington.
11. The leadership ability of Donald Ambrose and Lucy Anne Phillips is left to Sabin Leach and Betsy Mason.
12. Mike Bailey and Kathryn Everette leave their love for griping to Henry Williamson and Shirlie Gaskins.
13. Dell Swindell and Bobby Upton leave their reckless driving to Sylvia Freeman and Kenneth Purser.
14. Betty Lou Beales and Jerry Jackson leave their friendliness to Barbara Jones and Billy Carter.
15. Charlotte Upton and Jack Warren leave their laziness to Susan Roberts and Joe Hassell.
16. Jimmy Hackney leaves his scientific mind to Dukie Watson and Barbara Waters.
17. Durwood Moore, Lindy Hodges, and Bobby Woolard leave their jobs of driving a school bus to Harrell Willard.
18. Durwood Cratch leaves the Commercial Department!!!
19. Pat Cameron and Marshall Singleton leave their scatter-braininess to Phyllis Wallace and Donald Windley.
20. Harry Gurganus and "Bunny" Jernigan leave their good taste in clothes to Geary Winstead and Tennys Bowers.
21. Annie Laura Hodges and Bing Woolard leave their shyness to Dora Sawyer and Philip Godfrey.
22. Judy Bridgeman leaves all her troubles behind (she hopes)!!!
23. The true hearts of Pat Sears, Deanna Farrow, Shirley Underwood, and Bernice Taylor are left to Lou Warner, Betty Lou Matkins, Ann Cartwright, Anne Barrington, and Jane Boyd.
24. Anne Page Rhodes leaves her ability to "catch a drag" to Paula Russ.
25. To Ginger Hodges, June Hardison, and Myrtleann Woolard is left Kitty Ellington's, Lindsay Britt's, and Shirley Cowal's way with the men.

Last Will and Testament

26. Joyce Alligood, Gloria Wood, and Pat Paul leave their ability to get those certain rings to Evelyn Brooks.

to thee.
Hail, Alma Mater, We pledge our loyalty.
To you, our school, we sing our song,
with hearts and heads held high
Hail, Alma Mater, Our love will never die.
Hail to our school days, those hours of joy we've seen.
Hail to our school days, that made
our minds so keen.
To noble friends, we sing our song,
with hearts and heads held high
Hail, Alma Mater, Our love will never die.

Rah, Rah, for Pam Pack

Rah, Rah, for Pam Pack, Pam Pack
must win
Fight to the finish, never give in!
Rah, Rah, Rah! You do your best,
boys,
We'll do the rest, boys.
Three cheers for W. H. S.
Rah! Rah! Rah!

F.H.A.

The Future Homemakers of America meet twice a month. At Thanksgiving these girls help a needy family, and at Christmas time dolls are dressed, in co-operation with the Salvation Army. In February a Valentine Dance is sponsored by the F.H.A. Some of the members attend the district and state rallies. To close a successful year, the annual Mother-Daughter banquet is held.

These activities help to fulfill our purpose, "learning to live today, to live better tomorrow."

The school paper, the Pamlicoan, is published by the Journalism Club of W. H. S. The purpose of this organization is to help aspiring young writers by teaching them to write newspaper articles and to put a newspaper together. Membership is open to anyone with a "C" average in English.

Club Latinus

Chartered by the Student Council in 1950, the Latin Club is one of the most active clubs in W.H.S. Under the leadership of the usual group of officers, the club sponsors a monthly publication, the LATIN CLUB BULLETIN. The highlight of the year is the banquet which for the past two years has been staged in authentic Roman style. Membership includes all students taking Latin and those who have successfully completed two years' study of the language of the Romans.

I've really enjoyed my four years up here and I'm sure you like your new library. It's been pleasant having you as Beta Club and annual advisor.
